

Lucille Nussdorfer - Tuscarawas County
2023 Woman of the Year
Sponsored by the Dennison Railroad Depot Museum

The Dennison Railroad Depot Museum is pleased to present the Tuscarawas County Woman of the Year Award in memory of Lucille Nussdorfer, founder of the Dennison Servicemen's Canteen that served 1.3 million soldiers during WWII. This Canteen became an inspiration to other towns across the country that copied Lucille's efforts and created their own canteens. The volunteer effort that resulted from Lucille's spark brought together 6,000 volunteers from 8 counties and left a reputation of caring and hospitality in our county that is remembered to this day. For her lasting impact on our area's history, Lucille was inducted into the Ohio Governor's Women's Hall of Fame by Governor Voinovich.

This award is given to someone who follows in the footsteps of Lucille Nussdorfer, founder of the Dennison Canteen, who has made a SIGNIFICANT LASTING IMPACT on her community through VOLUNTEERISM.

Criteria to be nominated for this award:

- 1. Nominee must live, work or volunteer in Tuscarawas County.
